STAFFING ARRANGEMENTS POLICY

Our Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) Service aims to provide educators, staff and nominated supervisors who have the qualifications and experience to develop warm, nurturing, and respectful relationships with children. We are committed to ensuring that children's health, safety, and wellbeing is protected at all times through providing appropriate and effective supervision according to legislated ratios and best practice. Our educators, in collaboration with our educational leader, design and implement developmentally appropriate programs that support children's participation and engagement, interests and learning.

PURPOSE

Under the Education and Care Services National Regulations, the approved provider must ensure that policies and procedures are in place in relation to staffing arrangements and take reasonable steps to ensure those policies and procedures are followed. (ACECQA 2021) To ensure our OSHC Service adheres to the Education and Care Service National Regulation we employ educators and staff in compliance with any state specific qualifications and experience and adhere to regulated educator and child ratios whenever children are educated and care for. We believe that children's safety, rights, and best interests are the paramount consideration for all Service operations, decisions and functions.

SCOPE

This policy applies to staff, educators, management, approved provider, nominated supervisor, students and volunteers of the OSHC Service.

IMPLEMENTATION

Our Service is committed to the safety, wellbeing and support of all children and young people in all aspects of operation within our OSHC Service. Our OSHC Service will comply with the required educators to child ratios and take into consideration any qualification requirements and experience for educators at centre-based services in order to meet National Regulations and Standards.
There are no national qualification requirements for educators at centre-based services for school age children including Out of School Hours Care Services, however some states and territories may have specific requirements. See below for state specific requirements and remove if not required for your Service.

All staff must adhere to our child safety policies including Child Protection, Child Safe Environment and Safe Use of Digital Technologies and Online Environments Policies. Our Service adopts and aligns with legislative requirements related to taking images or videos of children. (See Safe Use of Digital Technologies and Online Environments Policy.)

STAFFING ARRANGEMENTS

Under the Education and Care Services National Regulations, the approved provider must ensure the OSHC Service meets minimum staffing arrangements including:

- nominating a responsible person to oversee the day-to-day operation of the Service
- employing staff who hold required qualifications including anaphylaxis and emergency asthma management training, first aid, CPR and child protection training
- adhering to educator to child ratios
- ensuring an appropriately qualified and experienced educational leader is employed to lead the implementation of the educational program under the approved learning framework

- ensuring each staff member is considered fit and proper to work with children and hold a valid Working with Children Check (WWCC)/Vulnerable Persons Check
- ensuring any applications for staffing Service waivers meet National Law and National Regulation requirements, including all required documentation
- cooperating with the regulatory authority and complying with any directions or orders issued by the regulatory authority regarding a show cause, suspension or supervision notice provided to an employee, including removing the person from engagement with children immediately.

NOMINATED SUPERVISOR

The nominated supervisor is a suitable person appointed by the approved provider who is placed in day-to-day charge of an approved OSHC Service. The nominated supervisor has a range of responsibilities under the National Law and Regulations including, but not limited to, programming, supervision and safety of children, entry to and exit from the premises, food and beverage, administration of medication, excursions and staffing.

The approved provider will:

- ensure a nominated supervisor is nominated for the OSHC Service and display the name of the nominated supervisor in a place that is clearly visible to staff, educators, families and visitors
- notify the regulatory authority at least seven days prior to the nominated supervisor or as soon as practicable (no-more than 14 days after the nominated supervisor has commenced employment in the position)
- ensure the regulatory authority is notified if the nominated supervisor ceases employment at the Service, is removed from the role or withdraws consent to the nomination
- ensure the nominated supervisors meets the following requirements:
    - must be 18 years of older
    - holds a valid WWCC/Vulnerable Persons Check
    - have adequate knowledge and understanding of the provision of education and care to children and has the ability to effectively supervise and manage an education and care Service (Reg. 117C)
    - have the ability to adequately supervise and manage an education and care service
    - have successfully completed a course in child protection approved by the regulatory authority
    - have completed mandatory child safety training and be aware of mandatory reporting obligations

  - have a history of compliance with Education and Care National Law and other relevant laws (e.g., Family Law)
- ensure the nominated supervisor signs a Compliance History Statement and a Prohibition notice declaration
- remove the nominated supervisor from the role if a compliance action is determined against them or concerns are held regarding their suitability to meet the requirements of the role.

The nominated supervisor will:

- accept the role in writing, to ensure they have a clear understanding about their role and responsibilities
- ensure the OSHC Service program is reflective of the approved learning framework, incorporate the children's interests, and experiences, and consider the individual differences and needs of each child
- adhere to Service policies ensuring a safe and healthy environment is provided
- register with PRODA and complete required background checks, including WWCC/ Vulnerable Persons Check and criminal history record check.

RESPONSIBLE PERSON

The responsible person can be the approved provider, a nominated supervisor or a person with management or control, placed in day-to-day charge of the Service. Our OSHC Service will ensure there is always a nominated supervisor or responsible person on the premises when children are being educated and cared for.

The approved provider or nominated supervisor will:

- ensure any persons nominated as a responsible person placed in day-to-day charge are at least 18 years old and have adequate knowledge and understanding of the provision of education and care to children and an ability to effectively supervise and manage an education and care service (Reg. 117B)
- clearly communicate the responsible person on duty with families, educators, staff and visitors by displaying this information in the foyer or reception area
- ensure the responsible person adheres to Service policies and procedures and maintain a safe and healthy environment for children
- ensure the responsible person always acts with professionalism when dealing with children, educators, visitors, families and volunteers

- ensure the responsible person accepts the role in writing, to ensure they have a clear understanding about their role and responsibilities (Reg.117A)
- ensure the responsible person has a history of compliance with Education and Care National Law and other relevant law (e.g., Family Law)
- ensure the responsible person has have successfully completed a course in child protection approved by the regulatory authority
- ensure the responsible person has successfully completed mandatory Child Safety training and be aware of mandatory reporting obligations.

'SUITABLY QUALIFIED PERSON' DEFINITION

ACECQA determines the following qualifications as requirements for a 'suitably qualified person':
an individual who holds an approved qualification as listed on the ACECQA website that is approved by the National Authority or an individual who holds a qualification as approved by the National Authority

ACTIVELY WORKING TOWARDS DEFINITION

An educator who is enrolled in a course for an ACECQA approved diploma level or higher qualification.

EDUCATIONAL LEADER

The educational leader has an influential role in inspiring, motivating, affirming, and challenging or extending the practice and pedagogy of educators. It is a joint endeavour involving inquiry and reflection, which can significantly impact on the important work educators do with children and families.
The approved provider will:

- nominate a qualified and experienced educator to take on the educational leader role and responsibilities (Reg.118) This nomination and acceptance will be in writing.
- ensure the name of the educational leader is displayed at the OSHC Service in a place that is clearly visible to staff, educators, families and visitors (Reg.173)
- support the educational leader to fulfill their responsibilities by ensuring opportunities for professional development to support continuous improvement
- ensure the educational leader is aware of the responsibilities and obligations of the role to lead the development and implementation of educational programs in the Service.

The educational leader will:

- accept the position, in writing
- keep a record about how they mentor and guide educators of the OSHC Service to ensure continuous improvement

- guide educators to provide a range of learning experiences that cater for the needs and interests of children through play and leisure opportunities
- maintain evidence about the development of the learning program and the alignment to the My Time, Our Place (V2.0) framework
- be able to demonstrate an understanding of the responsibility and obligations of the role.

WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK /VULNERABLE PERSON CHECK

To comply with National Regulations for those undertaking paid or voluntary child-related work all employees, volunteers and students of the OSHC Service will acquire a WWCC/or Vulnerable Persons Check or relevant clearance in each state/territory prior to beginning any role in the Service (including orientation, volunteering).

The approved provider will:

- keep and maintain accurate records of the status and expiry date of the WWCC/Vulnerable Person Check for all staff, volunteers and students
- verify all WWCC before any staff, educators, students and volunteers are engaged or commences work in any capacity at the OSHC Service, to ensure the children are protected at all times
- check the NQA ITS portal during the recruitment process for any prohibition notices issued to a potential employee
- ensure any notifications or concerns regarding a person's fit and proper status, negative notice or WWCC/ Vulnerable Persons Check are recorded and steps taken immediately to ensure the person is not working directly with children in accordance with directions from the relevant state authority
- require staff, volunteers and students to notify the approved provider, within 72 hours of the event, or within 24 hours of becoming aware of the event, of any changes to their WWCC status, changes to their teacher registration or fit and proper status (including show cause notice, suspension notice, supervision notice, disciplinary notices/orders or prohibition notices)
- notify the regulatory authority within 24 hours of becoming aware of the event or becoming aware of changes to a staff/educator WWCC status including negative notices or changes to teacher accreditation or registration.
- ensure any visitor who has direct contact with children will be required to provide a WWCC for verification prior to coming into contact with children ensure a staff member, employee, volunteer, or contractor is not employed or engaged at the Service if the person is prohibited from working with children, including a prohibition notice in force provided under the National Law in any state or territory in Australia.

[The National Continuous Checking Capability (NCCC) to monitor the criminal history of WWCC holders across Australia is scheduled to begin in 2026]

APPROVED FIRST AID QUALIFICATIONS/ANAPHYLAXIS AND EMERGENCY ASTHMA MANAGEMENT TRAINING

- The approved provider is required to ensure at least one staff member, or one nominated supervisor holds current qualifications for first aid (including cardio-pulmonary resuscitation), anaphylaxis management and emergency asthma management training.
- The approved provider must ensure at least one staff member, or one nominated supervisor be in attendance at any place children are being educated and cared for by the OSHC Service and be immediately available in an emergency and hold the mandatory qualifications for:
    - an ACECQA approved first aid qualification (including cardio-pulmonary resuscitation renewed every 12 months)
    - anaphylaxis management training and
    - emergency asthma management training.

  (Approved qualifications are published on the ACECQA website)
- Services must have a staff member with current approved qualifications on duty and be immediately available in an emergency
- It is the staff and educator's responsibility to ensure they maintain current first aid (including cardio-pulmonary resuscitation), anaphylaxis management and emergency asthma management training qualifications and provide the OSHC Service with a copy of the certificate. Staff and educators must ensure they participate in training prior to the expiration date on their certificates
- approved first aid qualifications and ACECQA approved anaphylaxis and asthma management training every 3 years and renew cardio-pulmonary resuscitation every 12 months
- Our OSHC Service is located on the premises of a school site, the first aid training requirements (listed above) are met by a member of the school community who is in attendance at the school site and is immediately available in an emergency (Reg. 136(2)).

STAFF RECORD

Approved providers must keep accurate and up to date information about the nominated supervisor, educational leader, staff, volunteers, students, and the responsible person at the OSHC Service including:

- Identity and contact information (including full name, address and date of birth)
- role at the service
- place of employment
- qualifications held (including evidence of working towards qualifications)

- if applicable, evidence that the staff member/educator is actively working towards a qualification. If this is the case, the following must be recorded:
    - Proof of enrolment.
    - Documentary evidence that the staff member/educator has commenced the course, is making satisfactory progress towards the completion of the course, is meeting the requirements of maintaining the enrolment
- approved training completed (including first aid training, current approved anaphylaxis management training, approved emergency asthma management training and approved Child Protection)
- current Working with Children Check (WWCC) or Vulnerable People identifying number, Australian National Police Check and teacher registration (if applicable)
- PRODA RA number (if applicable)
- evidence of the nominator supervisor and educational leaders written consent to the appointment.

This information will be collected and maintained digitally within the National Educator Register from 2026. The approved provider will ensure the National Register is updated within 14 days of a person being employed, engaged or appointed or within 14 days of changes to information. Our OSHC Service will ensure records are kept in accordance with Reg. 145 and our Record Keeping and Retention Policy.

ADEQUATE SUPERVISION

Our OSHC Service adheres to the educator-to-child ratios outlined in the Education and Care Services National Regulations and requires educators to comply with our Supervision Policy and designated floor plans to ensure effective supervision. Educators will actively monitor children at all times, adjusting supervision to suit group needs, maintaining visibility and accessibility, and work together to ensure safety and well-being during all activities, including transitions, rest, toileting, and transportation.
Any person providing education and care and working directly with children are not to have in their possession any electronic device that can take images or videos or person storage and file transfer media.

EMERGENCY SITUATIONS- ADDITIONAL CHILDREN

Under Reg. 123, additional children may attend the education and care Service, for a maximum of 2 days, exceeding the required child to educator ratios in the event of an emergency where a child or 2 or more children from the same family require emergency care due to a child protection order or an urgent health care need of a parent that prevents them from caring for the child/ren. The approved provider will not permit an additional child or additional children to be educated and cared for at the OSHC

Service unless the approved provider determines, on reasonable grounds, that accepting the child/ren will not adversely affect the health, safety or wellbeing of children already attending the Service.

Any such decision will consider educator to child ratios, the qualifications and experience of educators on duty, the nature of the emergency, the needs and vulnerabilities of all children present and the Service's capacity to maintain compliance with all regulatory requirements. All decisions including the rationale and any risk assessment undertaken, will be documented and notification provided to the regulatory authority within 24 hours.

WORKING DIRECTLY WITH CHILDREN

National Regulations state that an educator cannot be included in calculating the educator to child ratio of an OSHC Service unless the educator is working directly with children. A record must be kept of educators working directly with children which includes the name of each educator and the hours each educator works directly with children being educated and cared for by the OSHC Service.

- To ensure compliance with regulations, our Service will only include educators in the educator to child ratio who are working directly with the children and ensure a current roster and a sign on/sign off record are available to verify this

ROSTERS

- Our OSHC Service will ensure the roster and routine provides adequate supervision of children at all times
- Consideration will be made to engage educators to maintain continuity of care to support children's development of secure relationships and contribute to their wellbeing
- Where possible, casual staff will be chosen from a pool of regular educators with whom the children are familiar.
- The staff roster will be planned in advance to ensure regulation requirements are met, including staff qualification and first aid qualification requirements.

PRIVACY

- Staff and educators will adhere to the OSHC Service's Privacy and Confidentiality Policy and Privacy Law in relation to children and their families, or matters relating to the Service and will at no time take part in inappropriate or unlawful conversations or discussions.
- The nominated supervisor will ensure that students and volunteers are made aware of the Services privacy and confidentiality policy and Privacy Law during their initial induction.
- All staff, educators, volunteers and students are provided with information about the Early Childhood Australia (ECA) Code of Ethics
- All staff and educators will be made aware of Child Information Sharing Schemes (CISS) and Family Violence Information Sharing Schemes (FVSS) as related to each state/territory

STAFF EMPLOYED UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE

Our OSHC Service will ensure any staff member under 18 years of age does not work at the service alone and is adequately supervised at all times by an educator who is over 18 years of age.

STAFF RECRUITMENT

Our OSHC Service will ensure a rigorous recruitment process is followed to select the best staff possible based on skills, qualifications, experience and suitability for the position available, as per the Service Recruitment Policy. Each role will refer to the appropriate position description during recruitment and the probation period to ensure applicants are suitable for the role and position. The recruitment process is aligned with legislative obligations, our Service's child safe culture, values and support diversity and inclusion.

- All potential staff will participate in robust interviews and have reference checks completed before an offer of employment is presented. Reference checks will take into consideration the suitability of the applicant for the role, previous experience and their commitment to child safe practices.
- All prospective applicants must declare they hold no prohibition or disciplinary notices/orders (including show cause notice, suspension notice, supervision notice) and undergo NQA ITS register checks with any negative findings deeming them unsuitable for employment.
- Staff and educators are advised it is an offence to provide false or misleading information in relation to their identity, qualifications, clearances, or any matter relevant to their suitability to work with children.

- All potential staff are subject to maintenance of a valid WWCC /Vulnerable Persons Check and appropriate qualification. Valid first aid, asthma and anaphylaxis management or food safety qualification may also be required.
- All potential staff must complete mandatory Child Safety training
- All new staff will undergo a probation period of six (6) months, during this time they will participate in an induction and orientation program and hold regular discussions regarding their performance with an appointed mentor.
- Staff induction includes provision of the Service's policies and procedures, National Principles for Child Safe Organisations [or state/territory child safe standards], Code of Conduct, child protection, electronic device requirements, Work Health and Safety guidelines, behaviour guidance, service routines, human resource documentation, physical environment, communication with families' processes, Family Assistance Law and Child Care Subsidy, Child Information Sharing Schemes and introduction to senior staff members and/or mentor.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Our OSHC Service will ensure a copy of the policies and procedures are available to all staff at all times, either electronically or in hard copy. The approved provider will ensure steps are taken to ensure staff follow policies and procedures through the following practices:

- new staff members are to read and acknowledge key policies and procedures during the induction process
- policy review is to be conducted during staff meetings to support staff understanding and adherence
- staff meeting minutes will record evidence of policies and procedures reviewed with staff
- policy review will be systematic and occur on a regular basis to support regular review and maintenance of policies and procedures
- staff are requested to provide feedback following policy reviews
- policy review will be conducted following updates to legislation or regulation amendments or following an incident or complaint
- the Staff Policy Acknowledgement Form is completed for each staff member
- performance reviews and improvements plans will be linked to policies and procedures
- checklists and audits will be used to identify any practices inconsistent with policies and procedures
- the Performance Management Policy outlines procedures for dealing with non-compliance of policies
- Performance improvement plans reflect expectations of behaviours required from staff linked to policies and procedures

ONGOING SUITABILITY

Our OSHC Service will ensure staff and educators remain fit and proper to work with children at all times. Any concerns, allegations or suspicions regarding child safety will be reported and responded to in accordance with the Child Protection Policy, Child Safe Environment Policy and Management of Inappropriate Conduct Procedure. All staff or educators employed at the Service must inform the approved provider of any changes to their fit and proper status within 24 hours, including any prohibition or disciplinary notices/orders (including show cause notice, suspension notice, supervision notice or enforceable undertaking). The approved provider will conduct regular WWCC/Vulnerable Persons Checks and complete NQA ITS register checks with any negative findings reported and investigated.

Reports will be made to relevant authorities as required (e.g. regulatory authority, child protection agency, reportable conduct scheme or police in accordance with Child Safety policies). Our Service will comply with all directions issued by relevant agencies following any notifications of reportable conduct, including ensuring the staff member or educator does not attend the premises or engage in education and care during the investigation. Where an investigation is underway the staff member or educator will be immediately removed from duties involving working directly with children
